

From: MARLINS840@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/20/02 10:02am
Subject: microsoft settlement

I would urge the judiciary to seriously consider the acceptance of Microsoft's offer to settle. For over ten years, we have been deluged with propoganda on the value and importance of having computers available to students in low income families. Now, when the government gets the chance to dramatically improve this situation, the judicial system invents ways to hamper real social progress.